15                   Case No. C17-0785RSL

16                   ORDER GRANTING LEAVE FOR 17                   PRELIMINARY DISCOVERY

18                  This matter comes before the Court on plaintiff's "Ex Parte Motion for Expedited 19                  Discovery" in the above-captioned matter. Dkt. # 5. Because plaintiff cannot identify the 20                  Doe defendants without taking discovery from internet service providers regarding each
21                  defendant's IP address, plaintiff's motion is GRANTED.

22                  Plaintiff may initiate discovery, including the issuance of subpoenas under Fed. R.
23                  Civ. P. 45, on internet service providers seeking information that would allow service on 24                  the Doe defendants, limited to his or her name, address, and email address.<sup>1</sup> An internet
25                  service provider ("ISP") served with a subpoena authorized by this Order shall give 26                  written notice, which includes email notice, and a copy of the subpoena to any affected
27                  subscriber(s) as soon as possible after service of the subpoena and shall provide plaintiff
28                  with the date(s) upon which notice was provided to each affected subscriber. The ISP

30                  <sup>1</sup> The Court has not authorized discovery of telephone numbers.

1 and/or any affected subscriber(s) shall have thirty (30) days from the date the subscriber
2 is notified of the subpoena to object to the production pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P.
3 45(d)(2)(B). Any objection must be in writing and sent to the ISP and to David A. Lowe,
4 Lowe Graham Jones PLLC, 701 Fifth Ave., Suite 4800, Seattle, WA 98104.

5       The ISP shall not disclose defendants' identifying information before or during the 6 30-day period or if a timely objection is served on plaintiff or its counsel unless and until 7 the objection is overruled. If an objection is served, the ISP shall preserve any material
8 responsive to the subpoena for a period of sixty (60) days in order to allow plaintiff to 9 move for an order compelling production under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(2)(B)(i). If no
10 objection is served, the ISP shall comply with the subpoena within ten (10) days.

11

12       Plaintiff shall provide a copy of this Order with each subpoena issued pursuant 13 thereto.
